Brewer Membership Extras

“Oh, so it’s like a glorified homebrew club”

As a brewer-member owner, you will enjoy all the benefits of a regular membership plus some great extras. We welcome everyone to this unique experience, from seasoned homebrewers to beginners + even members with no experience that just have an interest in the brewing process.

- Have a say in the beer, join the Broken Clock brewers in monthly brewer round table meetings to discuss upcoming pilot batches, beer events, share and get brewing advice on both the homebrew and commercial level. Discuss any ideas you have for your member-owned Broken Clock beer.
- Join the brewers on select brew days for both pilot batches and the big commercial batches.
- Exclusive, but always optional homebrew member projects + experiments
- At a time when the brewery purchases their in-brewery pilot system, brewer members may have the opportunity to brew their own recipes and possibly even have them on-tap or in crowslers in the sample room.
