

2017 AMBASSADOR

JENNA CAIN

Customer Service Representative
Century Bank of Georgia

Jenna Cain optimizes integrity, energy, hard work, and creative service in every detail of your banking needs. Jenna grew up in Woodstock, GA and began her banking career as a Financial Service Representative approximately twenty-one years ago. In 1998 Jenna moved to Calhoun, GA where she started working at National Bank of Commerce as a Financial Service Representative and started to form lasting relationships with the clients in the local community. She continued to serve her clients in 2002 when she began working at Regions bank as the Branch Manager. In 2010 Jenna joined the Century Bank of Georgia team where she served as the Branch Manager at the Main office location in Cartersville, GA and continues to meet the needs of the loyal customers and community that she has grown to love and support as a Customer Service Representative at the Calhoun, GA office. Jenna is passionate about creating an interactive and enjoyable business environment that supports learning.

Jenna is a fun-loving, outgoing, and compassionate person who loves spending time with her 13-year-old daughter, Kyndall, her boyfriend Nick, family and friends. In her spare time Jenna enjoys a good happy hour with friends, the sounds of a great music playlist, working outside and seeking adventure in the outdoors.

Jenna enjoys taking leadership roles. She has served at several organizations designing and delivering successful programs in management development, team building, diversity, communications, customer service, sales, change management, performance management as well as many other roles. Her work has always been focused on meeting the strategic needs of the organization.

Jenna's outstanding strengths include leadership, communication, facilitation and influencing. Jenna is very involved in community activities. She serves as an Ambassador for Bartow/Cartersville Chamber of Commerce in 2015, 2016 and 2017. She was also a volunteer coordinator for Atlanta Toys for Tots campaign in 2009. She always volunteers her time to serve in various areas around the communities where she lives and works.

Five words you can count on from Jenna Cain- love, integrity, commitment, passion, and fun.
