

2017 AMBASSADOR

KIM WEST

Business Development Officer, AVP
Wells Fargo Bank

Kim West is a business development officer with Wells Fargo Bank. She grew up in Calhoun, GA and currently lives with her husband Jeff and daughter Skylar in Adairsville, GA. Kim graduated from the University of Georgia with an undergraduate degree in Consumer Economics and also completed banking school with the Georgia Banker's Association and the University of Georgia. She began her banking career 20 years ago and has been with Wells Fargo for the last fourteen years. Kim has held various relationship and managerial positions during her banking career and has been with the business banking unit with Wells Fargo for approximately the last 5 years. Currently, Kim serves as a business development officer with the bank supporting the Atlanta market and surrounding communities. She has a passion for helping small business customers succeed financially and strongly believes in supporting the local community. Kim is on the Bartow Give-a-Kid-a-Chance committee and serves as an ambassador for the Cartersville-Bartow Chamber of Commerce.