

Food Vendor Permits at Farmers' Markets

No Permit is required for a food vendor who is:

- Offering only whole, uncut fresh fruits and vegetables, or
- Offering only prepackaged foods from an approved source that are not potentially hazardous, or
- A Home Based Vendor operating under Indiana Code 16-42-5-29.

A Farmers' Market Vendor Permit for an entire season at one location may be issued to a food vendor ($25.00 each farmers' market location, maximum fee of $75.00 per year):

- Included on Farmers' Market Master list, and
- Sampling, preparing, or serving foods that are not potentially hazardous (do not require temperature control for safety), such as kettle corn or maple syrup.
- Certified Food Handler requirements may apply.*

A Farmers' Market Vendor Permit for an entire season at one location may be issued to a food vendor ($75.00 each farmers' market location, maximum fee of $225.00 per year):

- Included on Farmers' Market Master list, and
- Sampling, preparing, or serving potentially hazardous foods (require temperature control for safety), such as dairy products, meats or cut melons.
- Certified Food Handler requirements may apply.*

A Mobile Food Establishment Permit may be issued to food vendors who operate a mobile unit. Mobiles are not limited to operating at farmers' markets, and are units that are readily moveable, such as pushcarts or trailers, and frequently change locations:

- Pushcart with all food prepackaged ($25.00 per unit per year)
- With no food preparation ($40.00 per unit per year), such as coolers holding prepackaged frozen meat, or
- With food preparation ($75.00 per unit per year).
- Certified Food Handler requirements may apply.*
