GENERAL INFORMATION

1. Provide a description (100 word/600 character maximum) that best describes why your company deserves this award. This will be given to the judging committee and distributed in ABEX promotional pieces should your company become a finalist. Please take the time required to best represent your company, keeping in mind that this may be published. Companies submitting nominations in more than one category must submit separate and different descriptions tailored to each category.

2. Briefly describe the nominee's business (400 character max.):

3. What was the nature of the company's growth or expansion? What activities precipitated the growth? Please indicate a time frame. (600 character max.)

4. What was (or will be) the impact of the growth/expansion on the company's sales and/or productivity? Please specify a time frame utilizing percentages. (800 character max.)

5. How many jobs were created in Saskatchewan as a result of your most recent expansion? How sustainable are these jobs? (300 character max.)

6. Does the firm have plans for continued growth? If so, please describe and include projections. (600 char. max.)

7. Does the company have a safety plan? Please attach electronic safety plan if possible, or at minimum, the index to show what the plan covers. (Not sure what's in a safety plan? Visit the ABEX page of the Sask Chamber website at www.saskchamber.com for more information)

Yes No

8. Is the business in compliance with all provincial and federal regulations? Explain briefly (100 character max.)

SECTION 2: FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Financial success is an important criterion in recognizing business excellence. In order to assist the jury in the selection of the ABEX Award winners, you are encouraged to submit any financial information that would demonstrate the success of the business.

NOTE: Companies who do not include financial information typically score lower in judging and are less likely to become a finalist.

Also, finalists in various categories may be contacted by our independent evaluators, Cogent Chartered Professional Accountants LLP, to provide certain financial data that would assist the jury in determining the financial stability of your business. All information is treated in a strictly confidential manner.
