

*which amount and same kind, grade and quality will be delivered to him or his order, as provided by law and the rules of the Public Utilities Commission of South Dakota, upon surrender hereof and payment of lawful charges.

1st. Including a maximum of seven cents (7¢) per bushel for receiving and handling, and seven cents (7¢) per bushel for redelivering, not to exceed a combined total of twelve cents (12¢) per bushel. There are no minimum rates.

2nd. Storage from date of receipt at maximum rates of 0.1042 cents per bushel per day for storage. There are no minimum rates.

3rd. By June thirtieth of each year, each warehouse operator shall provide written notice to each current depositor of all outstanding warehouse receipts, grain in open storage, and grain in a grain bank account. The notice shall state the market value of the grain and any accrued storage charges. Copies of the notices shall be kept and made available for inspection by the commission. Upon the payment of all the accrued charges and the return of this storage receipt, the warehouseman will, if requested by the holder hereof, issue a new storage receipt to such holder and cancel this receipt by endorsing thereon the words "Cancelled by the issuance of storage receipt No. _____", and inserting the number of the new storage receipt thereat. The cancelled storage receipt shall be signed by the storage warehouseman, his agent and the holder.

4th. If delivery is demanded, it will be made at this warehouse, if possible, and subject to weights and grades to be mutually agreed upon. If conditions arise that prevent such delivery, we reserve the right to make delivery at a terminal market where we ship grain, and subject to weights and grades at the terminal, said terminal market to be designated by the holder hereof, upon the payment of legally established storage charges and the regular freight charges between this station and the terminal market selected, of the gross amount called for by this receipt and subject to the requirements of the statutes in relation thereto.

5th. This grain is insured, for the benefit of the owner, against loss by fire and extended coverage.

Form 2222-A—SD—2008 (Rev./0000) Victor Lundeen Co., Printers • Fergus Falls, MN • 1-800-346-4870

“Warehouse storage charges through _____
accrued or to accrue prior to the acquisition of the _____ by CCC on the _____ represented by this warehouse receipt have been paid or otherwise provided for and a lien for such charges will not be asserted by the warehouseman against CCC or against any subsequent holder of the warehouse receipt.”

*which amount and same kind, grade and quality will be delivered to him or his order, as provided by law and the rules of the Public Utilities Commission of South Dakota, upon surrender hereof and payment of lawful charges.

1st. Including a maximum of seven cents (7¢) per bushel for receiving and handling, and seven cents (7¢) per bushel for redelivering, not to exceed a combined total of twelve cents (12¢) per bushel. There are no minimum rates.

2nd. Storage from date of receipt at maximum rates of 0.1042 cents per bushel per day for storage. There are no minimum rates.

3rd. By June thirtieth of each year, each warehouse operator shall provide written notice to each current depositor of all outstanding warehouse receipts, grain in open storage, and grain in a grain bank account. The notice shall state the market value of the grain and any accrued storage charges. Copies of the notices shall be kept and made available for inspection by the commission. Upon the payment of all the accrued charges and the return of this storage receipt, the warehouseman will, if requested by the holder hereof, issue a new storage receipt to such holder and cancel this receipt by endorsing thereon the words "Cancelled by the issuance of storage receipt No. _____", and inserting the number of the new storage receipt thereat. The cancelled storage receipt shall be signed by the storage warehouseman, his agent and the holder.

4th. If delivery is demanded, it will be made at this warehouse, if possible, and subject to weights and grades to be mutually agreed upon. If conditions arise that prevent such delivery, we reserve the right to make delivery at a terminal market where we ship grain, and subject to weights and grades at the terminal, said terminal market to be designated by the holder hereof, upon the payment of legally established storage charges and the regular freight charges between this station and the terminal market selected, of the gross amount called for by this receipt and subject to the requirements of the statutes in relation thereto.

5th. This grain is insured, for the benefit of the owner, against loss by fire and extended coverage.

Form 2222-A—SD—2008 (Rev./0000) Victor Lundeen Co., Printers • Fergus Falls, MN • 1-800-346-4870

“Warehouse storage charges through _____
accrued or to accrue prior to the acquisition of the _____ by CCC
on the _____ represented by this warehouse receipt have been paid or otherwise provided for and a lien for such charges will not be asserted by the warehouseman against CCC
or against any subsequent holder of the warehouse receipt.”

*which amount and same kind, grade and quality will be delivered to him or his order, as provided by law and the rules of the Public Utilities Commission of South Dakota, upon surrender hereof and payment of lawful charges.

1st. Including a maximum of seven cents (7¢) per bushel for receiving and handling, and seven cents (7¢) per bushel for redelivering, not to exceed a combined total of twelve cents (12¢) per bushel. There are no minimum rates.

2nd. Storage from date of receipt at maximum rates of 0.1042 cents per bushel per day for storage. There are no minimum rates.

3rd. By June thirtieth of each year, each warehouse operator shall provide written notice to each current depositor of all outstanding warehouse receipts, grain in open storage, and grain in a grain bank account. The notice shall state the market value of the grain and any accrued storage charges. Copies of the notices shall be kept and made available for inspection by the commission. Upon the payment of all the accrued charges and the return of this storage receipt, the warehouseman will, if requested by the holder hereof, issue a new storage receipt to such holder and cancel this receipt by endorsing thereon the words "Cancelled by the issuance of storage receipt No. _____", and inserting the number of the new storage receipt thereat. The cancelled storage receipt shall be signed by the storage warehouseman, his agent and the holder.

4th. If delivery is demanded, it will be made at this warehouse, if possible, and subject to weights and grades to be mutually agreed upon. If conditions arise that prevent such delivery, we reserve the right to make delivery at a terminal market where we ship grain, and subject to weights and grades at the terminal, said terminal market to be designated by the holder hereof, upon the payment of legally established storage charges and the regular freight charges between this station and the terminal market selected, of the gross amount called for by this receipt and subject to the requirements of the statutes in relation thereto.

5th. This grain is insured, for the benefit of the owner, against loss by fire and extended coverage.

Form 2222-A—SD—2008 (Rev./0000) Victor Lundeen Co., Printers • Fergus Falls, MN • 1-800-346-4870

“Warehouse storage charges through _____
accrued or to accrue prior to the acquisition of the _____ by CCC
on the _____ represented by this warehouse receipt have been paid or otherwise provided for and a lien for such charges will not be asserted by the warehouseman against CCC or against any subsequent holder of the warehouse receipt.”